INITIATED IN MASONRY.

The Bad Boy Gives His Father the Royal Bumper Degree.

"Say, are you a Mason, or a not-fellow, or anything?" asked the bad boy of the grocery man as he went to the cinnamon bag on the shelf and took out a long stick of cinnamon bark to chew.

"Why, yes, of course I am, but what set you to thinking of that?" asked the grocery man, as he went to the desk, and charged the boy's father with half a pound of cinnamon.

"Well, do the goats hunt when you nibble a fresh candidate?"

"No, of course not. The goats are cheap ones, that have no life, and we muzzle them, and put pillows over their heads, so they can't hurt anybody," says the grocery man, as he winked at a brother Odd Fellow who was seated on a sugar barrel, looking mysterious. "But why do you ask?"

"O, nuthin, only I wish me and my chum had muzzled our goat with a pillow. Pa would have enjoyed his becoming a member of our lodge better. You see, pa had been telling us how much good the Masons and Odd Fellows did and said we ought to try and grow up good so we could jine the lodges when we got big, and I asked pa if it would do any hurt for us to have a play lodge in my room and purtend to nishiate, and pa said it wouldn't do any hurt. He said it would improve our minds and learn us to be men. So my chum and me borried a goat that lives in a livery stable and carried him up to my room when pa and ma were out riding, but the goat blatted so we had to tie a handkerchief around his nose, and his feet made such a noise on the floor that we put some baby's socks on his feet. Well, sir, my chum and me practiced with that goat until he could bunt a picture of a goat every time. We borried a buck beer sign from a saloon man and hung it on the back of a chair, and the goat would hit it every time. That night pa wanted to know what we were doing up in my room, and I told him we were playing lodge and improving our minds, and pa said that was right, there was nothing that did boys of our age half so much good as to imitate men, and store by useful nollidge. Then my chum asked pa if he didn't want to come up and take the grand bumper degree, and pa laffed and said he didn't care if he did, just to encourage us boys in innocent pastime, that was so improving to our intellect. We had shut the goat up in a closet in our room, and he had got over his blating, so we took off the handkerchief and he was eating some of my paper collars and skate straps.

"We went up stairs and told pa to come up pretty soon and give three distinct taps, and when we asked him who comes there, he must say, 'a pilgrim who wants to join your ancient order, and ride the goat.' Ma wanted to come up, too, but we told her if she came in it would break up the lodge, cause a woman couldn't keep a secret, and we didn't have any side-saddle for the goat. Say, if you never tried it, the next time you nishiate a man in your Mason's lodge, you sprinkle a little kyan pepper on the goat's beard just before you turn him loose. You can get three times as much to the square inch of goat. You wouldn't think it was the same goat. Well, we got all fixed and pa rapped, and we let him in and told him he must be blindfolded, and he got on his knees a laffin, and I tied a towel around his eyes and then I turned him around and made him get down on his hands also, and then his back was right toward the closet door, and I put the buck beer sign right against pa's clothes. He was a laffin all the time, and said we boys were as full of fun as they made 'em, and we told him it was a solemn occasion, but we wouldn't permit no levity and if he didn't stop laffin we couldn't give him the grand bumper degree. Then everything was ready, and my chum had his hand on the closet door, and some kyan pepper in his other hand, and I asked pa in low base tones if he felt as though he wanted to turn back, or if he had nerve enough to go ahead and take the degree. I warned him that it was full of dangers as the goat was loaded for bear, and told him he yet had time to retrace his steps if he wanted to. He said he wanted the whole business, and we could go ahead with the menagerie. Then I said to pa that if he had decided to go ahead, and not blame us for the consequences, to repeat after me the following: 'Bring forth the Royal Bumper, and let him bunt!' Pa repeated the words, and my chum sprinkled the kyan pepper on the goat's moustache, and he sneezed once and looked sassy, and then he sneezed the larger beer goat rarin up, and he started for it just like a cow-catcher and blatted. Pa is real fat, but he knew he had got hit, and he grunted and said: 'Hell's fire! what you boys doin!' and then the goat gave him another degree, and pa pulled off the towel and got up and started for the stairs, and so did the goat, and ma was at the bottom of the stairs listening, and when I looked over the banisters pa and ma and the goat were all in a heap, and pa was yelling murder, and ma was screaming fire, and the goat was blating, and sneezing, and bunting, and the hired girl came into the hall and the goat took after her, and she crossed herself just as the goat strick her and said: 'Howly mother protect me!' and went down stairs the way we boys slide down hill, with both hands on herself, and the goat rared up and blatted, and pa and ma went into their room and shut the door, and then my chum and me opened the front door and drove the goat out. The minister who comes to see ma three times a week, was just ringing the bell, and the goat thought he wanted to be nishiated, too, and gave him one for luck, and then went down the sidewalk blating and sneezing, and the minister came in the parlor and said he was stabbed, and then pa came out of his room with his suspenders hanging down, and, as he didn't know the minister was there, he said cuss words, and ma cried and told pa he would go to hell sure, and pa said he didn't care, he would kill that kussid goat afore he went, and I told pa the minister was in the parlor, and he and ma went down and said the weather was propitious for a revival, and it seemed as though an outpouring of the spirit was about to be vouchsafed to his people, and none of them got down but ma, cause the goat didn't hit her, and while they were talkin' religion with their mouths, and kussin the goat inwardly, my chum and me adjoined the lodge, and I went and stayed with him all night, and I hadn't been home since; but I don't think pa will lick me, cause he said he would not hold us responsible for the consequences. He ordered the goat bisse, and we filled the order, don't you see? Well, I guess I will go and snick in the back way and find out from the hired girl how the land lays. She won't go back on me, cause the goat was not loaded for hired girls. She just happened to get in at the wrong time. Good-by, Sir. Remember and give your goat kyan pepper in your lodge."

As the boy went away, and skipped over the back fence, the grocery man said to his brother Odd-Fellow, "If that boy don't beat the devil then I never saw one that did. The old man ought to have him sent to a lunatic asylum."—Milwaukee Sun.

Grover Cleveland.

New York, 8.—Tammany Hall politicians are much incensed at Governor Cleveland's treatment. Apropos of his interview with S. J. Tilden. The Tribune says: "Ulysses, in sailing between Scylla and Charybdis, had not a more difficult course to follow than Governor-elect Cleveland, in trying to navigate his ship laden with presidential hopes, between Kelly Rock and Tilden Whirlpool. Observations taken during Cleveland's trip to this city show that the retired siren of Gramercy Park is luring the governor-elect dangerously near the whirlpool, and if he don't take a different track he will, in avoidance of his seahorse (Tammany), be swallowed without even a chance to save himself by clinging to a wild fig tree like Ulysses did after the loss of his ship."

Well, Well!

Paris, 8.—Republique Francaise, Gambetta's organ, says if the government of Great Britain continues to pursue its egotistical course in Egypt to the detriment of France's interest, France will protect those interests in the way she may think best.

The Utah Delegate.

Washington, 8.—The elections committee has up the case of Chino, who claims admission as the Utah delegate. It was referred to the sub-committee. The case of Jones vs. Shelley was also referred to a sub-committee.

Criminal.

Troy, 8.—The Essex county board of supervisors charge the superintendent of the county poor, (Tyrrell) with misappropriating over $10,000 of the county funds. Legal proceedings will be instituted.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving. G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.
